This project contains the following files

- Arch.html
  - Contains the main page for the Architect Seller website
  - Includes a form for sellers to fill out in order to post a listing for a property
- content.sql
  - prints out a formatted report of the contents currently in the architect database
- functions.sql
  - contains a PL SQL function and procedure used in the webpage
- login.php
  - contains the file responsible for letting the user login to oracle in order to save data to the database
- style.css
  - contains the style sheets for the website
- table-set-up.sql
  - creates the tables used in the architect database

website : http://nrs-projects.humboldt.edu/~om61/project/arch.html